Present Continuous (for arrangements)

We use the Present Continuous to talk about arrangements and fixed plans made before the time of speaking.

We often mention the time, date and / or place.

I'm meeting Paul this evening at Trafalgar Square. (affirmative)

Are you having dinner with Sandra tonight? (interrogative)

She isn't going out tonight. She's sick. (negative)

Remember!

We often use these expressions to indicate future time. tomorrow morning, next Sunday, tonight, in two days' time, etc.
