

Theme 2 Listening Skills: WS 3: Listen to the conversation between two students to practice and improve your listening skills

1. The class started five minutes ago.

True                      False

2. The boy seems concerned about the mid-term tests

True                      False

3. The teacher will hand back the tests next Thursday.

True                      False

4. The students are supposed to be on page 36 of the textbook

True                      False

5. The boy shares his textbook with the girl.

True                      False

6. The teacher is going on about search engines.

True                      False

7. The girl asks the boy to be quiet so she can listen to the lecture

True                      False

8. The boy thought this class was about the French Revolution.

True                      False

9. The class is on software engineering

True                      False

10. The boy is in the wrong class.

True                      False