

Read the pairs of sentences and guess
which definition matches each underlined verb.

This is an interactive exercise. To answer,
join the sentences with an arrow.

1. I went shopping online this year for Father's day. Dad's mad about cooking, so I gave him a set of pots.

2. I took up piano lessons last year but I don't think it's for me. I find it too difficult, I'll probably give it up soon.

Definitions:

a) To stop doing something before you have finished it

b) To offer something to someone

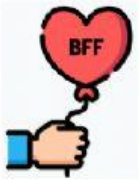

This is an interactive exercise. To answer,
join the sentences with an arrow.

1. I was exiting the bus the other day while looking at my phone so I missed the last step and fell on the street.

Definitions:

a) To suddenly go down onto the ground by accident

2. I fell for my best friend but I'm afraid it'll ruin our friendship if she doesn't feel the same way. Should I tell her?

b) To suddenly have strong romantic feelings about someone

This is an interactive exercise. To answer,
join the sentences with an arrow.

1. Even though I'm no longer a child, my mom insists on holding my hand when we cross a street.

2. Can you believe I've lost my keys?! Mom's gonna kill me, she'd told me to hold on to those because they were the only extra copy.

Definitions:

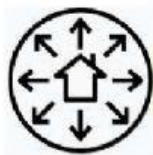

a) To take and keep something in your hand or arms

b) To keep something or someone that is important or useful

This is an interactive exercise. To answer,
join the sentences with an arrow.

1. When we were kids, my brother used to move my stuffed toys just to make me mad.

2. Foreigners usually find it weird when I tell them that, in general, Brazilians only move out when they get married.

Definitions:

a) To stop living in a particular home

b) To change position

This is an interactive exercise. To answer,
join the sentences with an arrow.

1. Working with my best friend at the same company was a really exciting experience. We shared both tips and laughs.

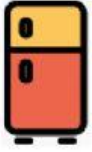

2. We've been waiting for the vaccine to be developed but it takes time. I just hope it all works out and we all get it eventually.

Definitions:

a) To be successful or develop in a particular way

b) To do a job, especially the job you do to earn money

This is an interactive exercise. To answer,
join the sentences with an arrow.

1. The recipe says you have to put the cake in the fridge before frosting, don't you try to do otherwise!

2. I'd put off doing the laundry for so long that when I realized, all my clothes were dirty and I had nothing to wear but underwear.

Definitions:

a) To move something or someone into the stated place, position, or direction

b) To delay an event or activity until a later time or date

This is an interactive exercise. To answer,
join the sentences with an arrow.

1. I take good care of my health so I can live to see the better world that the new generation is building.

Definitions:

a) To be alive or have life

2. I was dreading spending my money on that online course because I didn't know if it'd be any good. At the end of the day, it lived up to my expectations, it was a money well-spent!

b) To be as good as something

This is an interactive exercise. To answer,
join the sentences with an arrow.

1. My sister made a speech at the graduation ceremony and it was incredible! She ended it with a smart joke and everyone laughed their heads off.

Definitions:

a) To finally be in a particular place or situation

2. When I took ENEM, my parents wanted me to study Law but I ended up following my own dreams so now I'm a teacher.

b) To finish or stop