

1. When I left our ancestral house, it was almost two hundred years old.
a) big b) bungalow c) family d) small
2. He wished to visit the tea shop of Nagen Uncle, if it existed.
a) be present b) be excited c) be old d) be good
3. This owner of the tea shop, now over sixty, was a little rustic in appearance.
a) dirty b) trim c) old d) rural
4. With his eyes dilated he began to recite a poem by Tagore – Panraksha.
a) write b) narrate c) show d) hide
5. He left the place, making the gesture of Namaste with his hands.
a) sign b) uttered c) conduct d) life
6. It has become essential to do so,’ Aditya replied.
a) involved b) invited c) important d) pleasure
7. A portion of a wall of the attic had crumbled down.
a) shown b) crushed c) made d) lifted
8. ‘Of course,’ said the gentleman. ‘The spoilt child of affluent parents!’
a) poor b) fashionable c) good d) rich
9. Peering intently at Aditya, Sasanka Sanyal Smiled and said, ‘I had recognised you.’
a) looking b) smiling c) jumping d) running
10. Your grievances are absolutely justified.
a) wonderfully b) lovingly c) coolly d) completely