

Phrasal verbs

Watch the video until minute 1.40

Now, read the sentences and write T if a phrasal verb is transitive or I if a phrasal verb is intransitive. Then, match them to the correct definition (A-H).

T or I?

- 1) You promised to be there! I had never thought you'd let me down like that.
- 2) It is clear that he is into her. He's been chatting her up since we arrived.
- 3) My sister and I don't get on very well. We never see eye to eye.
- 4) Get over it! She's seeing another guy, so what?! She's not the only girl on earth.
- 5) I don't want to be here. I don't know why I let you talk me into coming.
- 6) This is it! I won't put up with your insults anymore! I'm leaving!
- 7) This must be one of Murphy's laws! Whenever I go out in sweatshirts and joggers I run into all the people I know!
- 8) She has her father's eyes but she really takes after her mother more.

DEFINITIONS

- a) to talk to someone in a way that shows that you are attracted to them
- b) to tolerate someone or something
- c) to persuade someone to do something
- d) to be similar to an older member of your family in appearance or character
- e) to have a good relationship
- f) to disappoint someone
- g) to return to your usual state of health or happiness after having a bad or unusual experience, or an illness
- h) to meet someone you know when you are not expecting to

Watch the video until minute 2.17. Then, decide if the phrasal verbs from the sentences above are SEPARABLE or INSEPARABLE.

1)

2)

3)

4)

5)

6)

7)

8)