Abraham & Lot. Genesis 12:1-9 & Genesis 13

Father Abraham's Song

Abram and his family arrived in the land of Canaan where God had told him to go. Abram and his nephew, Lot, both prospered while living in the land of Canaan. Their servants began to argue over whose flocks and herds should have the little amount of grass that was available. To solve the problem Abram told Lot to choose an area for himself and that he (Abram) would take what was left. Lot chose the more fertile land and moved near the city of Sodom, a place where very bad and wicked people lived. He did not care because the land was green and fertile. Abram began living in a less fertile area but God blessed him and told him that all of that land would someday belong to his descendants.
