

UNIT-1 LEARNING THE GAME

CHOOSE THE CORRECT SYNONYMS FOR THE UNDERLINED WORDS...

1. Children are expected to emulate their parents.

- a. imitate b. neglect c. disregard d. dispossess

2. Riya was overawed by the presence of so many people.

- a. discouraged b. depressed c. impressed d. bore

3. My induction as a teacher is the turning point in my life.

- a. end b. rejection c. finish d. introduction

4. Ragul is a rigorous volley ball coach.

- a. careful b. flexible c. improper d. imprecise

5. Runners need plenty of stamina.

- a. powerlessness b. energy c. weakness d. lethargy

6. We should accept ups and downs in the stride of our life.

- a. stroll b. drag c. pace d. toddle

7. She behaved rudely towards the child without any embarrassment.

- a. comfort b. ease c. confidence d. shame

8. Ram decides to pursue his higher studies.

- a. continue b. avoid c. neglect d. give up

9. The launch of the satellite transpires next week.

- a. vanishes b. removes c. happens d. quits

10. Mr. Obama is a man of farsightedness.

- a. foresight b. thoughtlessness c. ignorance d. carelessness

11. His health condition began to deteriorate seriously.

- a. recover b. worsen c. improve d. develop

12. Pradap is a man of political influence.

- a. hindrance b. power c. incapacity d. weakness

13. Share your ideas about the project with your peer group.

- a. companion b. opponent c. foe d. stranger

14. My work is my passion.

- a. aversion b. dislike c. desire d. hatred

15. Mani is well-versed in the nuances of Sculpture.

- a. imprecision b. tactlessness c. inaccuracy d. subtlety

