If the weather is nice I'll probably go to the park with my dog Puffy. But, what if it isn't? what if it's raining? For if it's raining next weekend, I can't walk my dog and I'll have to stay home maybe watching movies or playing online poker. But I really want to go out. If it's cloudy but it doesn't rain, I won't stay home at all! I'll go to the mall and do some window shopping or meet my friends. If I go to the mall I'll get a large capuchino. I'm a coffee lover. However, If I meet my friends they will invite me to a party for sure! So if that happens, I'll have to buy something to wear! Oh boy, but what if it's cold at night! I will have to wear boots or even a coat! Why it has to be so hard to make plans for the weekend? Besides, I have birthday party on Friday, so what if I get a stomach ache from eating too much cake? I neither go to the mall nor the party. I should probably stay home and finish my homework. If I don't do it, my teacher will definitely get angry!
