

Complete with the past form of the verbs:

1. Mike _____ (play) an important role.
2. Mike _____ (say) that he likes chocolate cakes.
3. Mike _____ (repeat) that he likes chocolate cakes.
4. Mike _____ (choose) the chocolate cake.
5. Mike _____ (make) a chocolate cake.
6. Mike _____ (deny) that he likes chocolate cakes.
7. Mike _____ (recognise) Anna's cake.

Match each dialogue with the correct statement from exercise 1:

A. Mike: We all did a great job! And we won the competition!
Anna: Yes, but you were the best. We won thanks to you!

B. Mike: Wow! There are lots of cakes! Which one is yours, Anna?
Anna: It is a chocolate cake.
Mike: That one! The one with Nutella topping!
Anna: Yes!

C. Anna: I love lemon cakes. What type of cakes do you prefer?
Mike: Well... I like chocolate cakes!

D. Mike: I like chocolate cakes.
Anna: Do you like chocolate cakes?
Mike: Yes! I said it. I like chocolate cakes!

E. Mike: Yuck! I hate chocolate cakes.
Anna: You said that you like chocolate cakes!
Mike: No, I never said that. I don't like them.

F. Mike: Yesterday I mixed flour and eggs. Then I put it in the oven and the cake was ready!

G. Anne: I made three cakes. A lemon cake, a strawberry cake and a chocolate cake. Which one do you want?
Mike: Hmm... I want the chocolate one!