

"Quantifiers"

Choose the correct answer.

I haven't got many / much time. I have to leave in a few / a little minutes.

You have to answer a little / a few short questions to join the club.

There are a lot of / a lot cycling paths around the town.

You do very little / few exercise and you need to lose a little / a few kilos.

There aren't many / much people living in this area.

There are lot / a lot of spelling mistakes in this text message!

Is there much / many crime in this town?

There are too many / too much magazines and little / few space on the shelf.

Are you going to take much / many luggage?

Ok, but we have few / little things in common.

There is a little / a few jam in the jar.

You've put too much / too many pepper on the meat.