

Worksheet (4)

2020 - 2021	Name:.....	Grade: Six
/ / 2020		Section:

Grammar
Will/ going to

Outcome: Differentiate between the use of will and going to correctly.

Instructions: My dear student , answer the following questions depending on your previous knowledge within 30 minutes.

A: Choose the correct answer.

- Oh! My son split his drink. I will _____.
a. clean it up    b. cleaned it up    c. cleaning it up
- We are going _____ you the work tonight.
a. to send    b. send    c. to sending
- Will you _____ the door for me?
a. opened    b. open    c. opening
- She is _____ spend the next holiday in Spain. She is thinking of Italy.
a. going to not    b. going not to    c. not going to

B: Choose “ will ” or “ be going to”.

- I'm cold. I think I _____ put the condition on. ( will - am going to )
- She _____ write her homework tomorrow. ( will - is going to )
- They _____ watch a film this weekend. ( will - are going to )
- A: I can't move this desk.
B: I _____ help you. ( will - am going to )
- There are no taxis in this area. I _____ my brother to drive us home.
( will - am going to )

Worksheet (4)

C: Choose the correct use of future form for each sentence.

1. I'm going to wear my black dress tonight.
a. plan                      b. decision made at the moment of speaking
2. The teacher wants the homework tomorrow . I'll do it now.
a. plan                      b. decision made at the moment of speaking
3. It's too late. I will leave now.
a. plan                      b. decision made at the moment of speaking
4. They are going to meet their friends in the restaurant next week.
a. plan                      b. decision made at the moment of speaking