

UNIT-6 FROM ZERO TO INFINITY

CHOOSE THE CORRECT SYNONYMS FOR THE UNDERLINED WORDS...

1. It is absurd to wear a coat in such hot weather.

- a. unreasonable b. sensible c. wise d. logical

2. The landscape seemed to stretch into infinity.

- a. limitation b. endlessness c. bounds d. transience

3. The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes is an intriguing book.

- a. boring b. dreary c. fascinating d. dull

4. Lydian Nadhaswaram is a child prodigy.

- a. average b. idiot c. fool d. genius

5. Vignesh lived in a dingy room.

- a. dark b. bright c. clean d. radiant

6. The garden looks unkempt.

- a. tidy b. not neat c. stylish d. wellgroomed

7. Tom was an uncouth young boy .

- a. classy b. graceful c. uncivilized d. elegant

8. The judge dismissed the evidence as conjecture.

- a. proof b. truth c. fact d. speculation

9. The professor found some discrepancies in Aswin's research.
a. variations b. correspondence c. similarity d. sameness

10. Nethra is a distinguished military officer.
a. insignificant b. eminent c. ordinary d. unknown

11. The hungry cat was devouring fish.
a. abstaining b. avoiding c. consuming d. refraining

12. After reaching the destination, Rathi disembarked the train.
a. board b. embarked c. got on d. left

13. Sasi is ill and emaciated.
a. haggard b. healthy c. fat d. strong

14. It was agonising to climb the mountain.
a. comfortable b. happy c. painful d. delight

15. Many people are suffering economic hardship.
a. ease b. crisis c. advantage d. prosperity

