

Climatic Zones

- 1) A climate zone is
 - a) Something on the air conditioner in my house
 - b) An area/region that shares the same climate features
 - c) A special defense in basketball

- 2) The temperate zones are between the Equator and the Tropics.
 - a) True
 - b) False

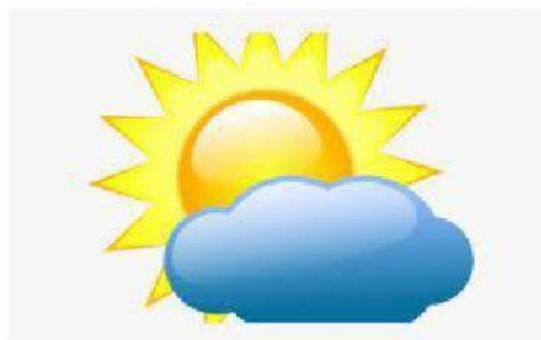

- 3) The polar zones of the Earth are far northern and far southern, near the poles. Is that true or false?
 - a) True
 - b) False

- 4) What climate zone is the white area in the picture?

- a) Temperate Zone
- b) Tropical Zone
- c) Polar Zone

- 5) Temperatures in the POLAR ZONES are...
- a) cold all year
 - b) always warm
 - c) warm in summer and cold in winter.

- 6) Temperatures in the TROPICAL ZONES are...
- a) cold all year
 - b) always warm

- c) warm in summer and cold in winter
-
- 7) Precipitations in the POLAR ZONES are...
 - a) heavy or little, it depends on the area
 - b) variable
 - c) little and in the form of snow
-
- 8) Which climate zone gets the least amount of precipitation?
 - a) Tropical Zone
 - b) Temperate Zone
 - c) Arid Zone
-
- 9) A continuously hot climate with an enormously high precipitation level is which climate?
 - a) Polar Region
 - b) Temperate Zone
 - c) Tropical Zone
-
- 10) What does precipitation mean?
 - a) How hot or cold a place is.
 - b) How wet or dry a place is.
 - c) How much vegetation a place has.