

Grammar

Be – past simple: affirmative and negative

Affirmative

Singular

I / He / She / It	was	at home.
You	were

Plural

We / You / They	_____	at home.
-----------------	-------	----------

Negative

Singular

I / He / She / It	_____	funny.
You	weren't

Plural

We / You / They	_____	funny.
-----------------	-------	--------

Write the correct past form of be to complete the sentences. Use the affirmative (✓) or the negative (✗) form.

- 1 Michael Bublé was great in the night show. (✓)
- 2 Last night's episode of my favourite series _____ really sad. (✓)
- 3 My friend Helen _____ at school yesterday. (✗)
- 4 Unfortunately, my teachers _____ interested in my story. (✗)
- 5 The actors in the school play _____ really fantastic! Everybody applauded a lot. (✓)
- 6 The film _____ on Warner. It was on AXN at 10.00 pm. (✗)

Complete with the correct past form of be.

Jennifer and Gloria are best friends. They usually walk to school and study all day long together. But yesterday (1) was a different day. They didn't go to school. They travelled to Liverpool with their parents. There (2) _____ a concert in a big stadium. It (3) _____ full of people. There (4) _____ more than six bands playing pop music. The money collected (5) _____ for charity. Fortunately, the weather (6) _____ good. The girls (7) _____ very happy.

Write negative and affirmative sentences.

- 1 Rita / sad / yesterday (happy)
Rita wasn't sad yesterday. She was happy.
- 2 My children / park / last weekend (cinema)

- 3 Jane and Sarah / home / yesterday (sports centre)

- 4 the film / scary (funny)

- 5 last night's programme / interesting (boring)
