

DRAG EACH OF THE PHRASES IN THE BOX ON THE RIGHT AND DROP IT INSIDE THE CORRECT BOX ON THE LEFT SO AS TO FORM COMPLETE AND MEANINGFUL SENTENCES.

1-The European Commission President urged Italy not to

2-China, with her already overtaxed fields, cannot afford to

3- Supermarkets and libraries are usually enthusiastic about exhibiting children's work, so they are willing to

4- When we recall the past, we find that it is the simplest things, rather than great occasions, which, in retrospect, are likely to

5-As a child, he would never pull down his pants in front of other children in order not to

6-She found that her strength had drained out of her body and could not go on struggling even if her son told her not to

7-Dieting can be really tough and it is typical to give over part of their foyer for a limited time give his Jewish origin away give in to irresistible cravings give in to populism give off the greatest glow of happiness give herself over to grief give over an acre to the cultivation of this crop