

Short dialogues

In this exercise you'll hear a series of 12 short dialogues. As you listen to each one, look at the three answer choices in your book and circle the one that is true based upon what you have heard. You'll hear each item only once, so listen carefully.

1. a. She'd rather not discuss it.
b. she doesn't remember at all.
c. She remembers but not very clearly.
2. a. She thinks it's wonderful.
b. She's not surprised.
c. She didn't expected it.
3. a. She has no idea whatsoever.
b. She'll try to find someone to ask.
c. She shares his curiosity.
4. a. she has no opinion on the matter.
b. She agrees but not very enthusiastically.
c. She thinks it's a great idea.
5. a. she admires his good intentions.
b. She agrees with her mother.
c. She thinks he'll never do it.
6. a. Gina doesn't need to go on a diet.
b. Gina's always talking about dieting.
c. Gina has already told her.
7. a. He thinks she should stay calm.
b. He thinks she'll get what she wants.
c. He thinks she shouldn't get her hopes up.
8. a. He's not sure if it's worth the risk.
b. His mind is totally made up.
c. He hopes she'll lend him money.
9. a. He's sure he'll lose his job.
b. He has no idea why the boss was angry.
c. He thinks there maybe some hope.
10. a. She thinks the policeman learned a lesson.
b. She thinks he needs some driving lessons
c. She thinks he deserved the punishment.
11. a. She wants him to leave.
b. She is totally surprised.
c. She refuses to believe him.
12. a. She denies that she was smoking.
b. She finds his request offensive.
c. She promises never to do it again.

