

Exercise 1.1

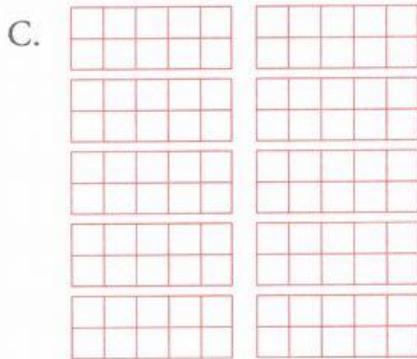

1. Look at the squares and answer.

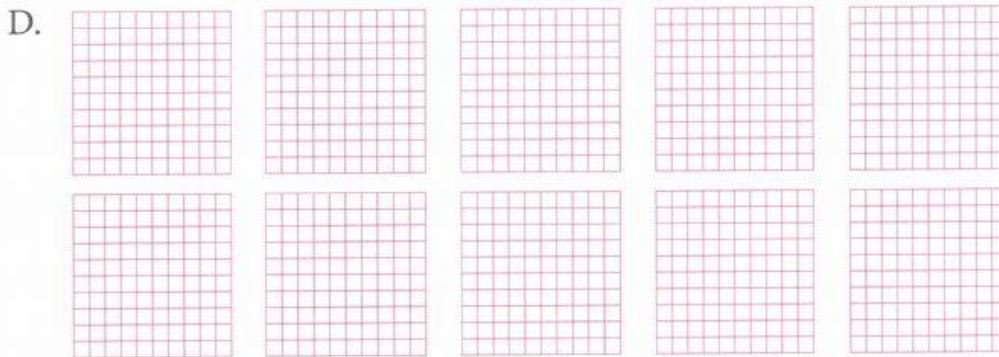

How many ones are there?
_____ one or $1 \times 1 = 1$

How many ones are there?
_____ ones = _____ ten or $1 \times 10 =$ _____

- a. How many tens are there?
 10×1 ten = _____ tens
- b. How many ones are there?
 10×10 ones = _____ ones
= 1 hundred

- a. How many hundreds are there?
 10×1 hundred = _____ hundreds
- b. How many tens are there?
 10×10 tens = _____ tens
= 1 thousand or $10 \times 100 = 1000$
- c. How many ones are there?
 10×100 ones = _____ ones = 1 thousand or $1 \times 1000 = 1000$

How many zeros are there in one thousand?

Let me see. There are three zeros in 1,000!

