Were you in my room? Simple past of the verb be Past adverbial phrases

- 1 Look at the photo. Who is asking, "Were you in my room?"

- 2 Read the next text. Who was in Mexico?

Lin: Toby! You're back! How was Mexico?
Toby: It was great. I was in Mexico City on June 16, Veracruz on June 21, and I was in Monterrey yesterday.
Lin: Cool! I want to go to Mexico.
Toby: Greg, were you in my room last week?
Greg: No. Of course not! Why?
Toby: Because my video games are on my bed. Look! They weren't there before. They were on my chair. Why are they on my bed?
Greg: Dunno. It wasn't me!
Toby: And my tennis racket isn't here.
Greg: I don't play tennis.
Toby: Greg, I wasn't born yesterday! I'm going out now, and when I get back I want my tennis racket back!
Lin: He's so cool!
Greg: Cool? You're crazy!
