

Read the text. Look at the tray. Then, click on the correct option.

Fiona

Hello! This is my lunch for today. Look!

There is / There are some rice on my tray.

There are / There is some soup in a bowl, too.

I have got some / I haven't got any fruit .

There isn't / There aren't any tomatoes.

There is some milk.

Phil

Hi ! I have some healthy dinner on my tray today.

There is / are some chicken and there is / are some rice, too

There are / is some strawberries but there aren't / isn't any grapes.

Look at the children's food again. Answer the questions.

Use:

Yes, there is.

Yes, there are.

No, there isn't.

No, there aren't.

Fiona's lunch

1- Is there any meat in the girl's tray?

.....

2- Are there any cherries in her tray?

.....

3- Is there any milk?

.....

4- Are there any oranges?

.....

Phil's dinner

1-Is there any yoghurt in the boy's tray?

.....

2- Are there any peas in his plate?

.....

3- Are there any eggs?

.....

4-Is there any milk?

.....