

WORD DOMAINS - LAUGH

For each of the following sentences, choose the word or expression which fits best.

1. Sharon was particularly annoyed by her ex friend Marietta, who had procured a new group of friends who would _____ when she passed by, looking like stupid children.
2. The sound of her laughter was somehow scary. It was like listening to a witch with her loud _____, which made us all cringe at the sound of it.
3. "You know that I come from Loch Ness... Would you like to meet my Nessie?," he said, _____ at her.
4. The _____ he made when I told him he'd be better off in a less demanding job told me he did not like the idea very much.
5. The little boy tried really hard not to laugh out loud at his friend when he fell to the ground, but we could still hear him _____ while he covered his mouth.
6. The interviewer _____ at the candidate when he said that his biggest ambition was to be a ballet dancer.
7. When I asked Marnie who had used crayons to doodle on the wall, all she did was give me a toothy _____ as if the whole business was not serious at all.
8. He sang so horribly that the crowd started to _____ loudly, so he could only sing one song and had to get off the stage.