

Recommended song to listen to while you work:

THE WORKING WORLD
PREDICTIONS

- 1) Read the statements. How likely is it that these things will happen? Drag the examples in the correct columns.

- a. Atletico will win the Champions League.
- b. She might lose the tennis match.
- c. I don't think I will ever travel into space.
- d. We might not finish the project on time.
- e. They won't complete the work by Friday.
- f. We may be able to go camping.
- g. Of course, I may not get the job.
- h. He'll get there before lunchtime.

PROBABLY (more than 75%)	POSSIBLY (50%-70%)	POSSIBLY NOT (25% - 50%)	PROBABLY NOT (less than 25%)

- 2) Complete the sentences with will, won't, might, think, don't think.

- a. I know for sure that Fatma _____ come to the barbecue - she promised she would.
- b. Gabriel _____ be home by six o'clock - it depends how much work he has to do.
- c. I _____ that Berat will come to the cinema. He's too busy.

- d. He definitely _____ come with us on Tuesday. He only goes out at the weekend.
- e. I _____ that Vitor will pass his exam. He's so clever and he's been studying so hard.
- f. We _____ go to the park for a picnic, although it depends on the weather.
- g. I may visit Fernanda this evening, so I probably _____ come to the concert after all.
- h. Don't worry, we _____ definitely get to the restaurant on time!
- i. The sky looks fairly blue - I _____ that it'll rain today.
- j. Our project is going quite well, so we _____ it'll be a success.

