

1) Think of 10 things you used to do before the quarantine.

2) Listen to the song and tick things the man is doing at home:

- He is dreaming about going out to eat
- He is shouting out to neighbors
- He is having parties
- He is watching cartoons
- He is reading books
- He is working from home
- He is ordering things online
- He is studying English
- He is Face Time calling his friends
- He is sitting on his couch
- He is wearing beautiful pants
- He is cooking lovely dishes
- He is watching memes on his phone
- He is taking a shower
- He is cleaning his flat
- He is shopping online
- He is singing songs

3) What about you? Are you doing any of these things?

4) Fill in the gaps with the correct verb forms:

Hello! It's me.

I'm in California dreaming about going out to eat

Just a burger with cheese

Or a shaken margarita, baby back ribs from Chili's!

Hello! Can you hear me?

I (1) _____ (shout) out to neighbors who I used to like to see.

When we (2) _____ (be) outside and free.

Is there anything to watch besides the news and Finding Dory?

There's social distance between us and I (3) _____ (freak out).

Hello from the inside!

It's just me, myself and I.

And I a Stay Home order that's breaking my heart,

But it's clearly what we should've done from the start.
