

AFTER THE FLOOD

Match each question with the answer

1. When did it happen?

When we finished filling up sandbags, we drove back home to see what we could donate

2. Where were you?

We decided to drive around to see how other people in our town were doing. We stopped to help people who were filling bags with sand. The bags helped to keep the water away

3. Were you with other people?

Mom and dad were getting the water out of the basement

4. What were you doing before it happened?

Mom and Dad seemed to be taking care of it

5. What were you doing when it started?

As I was wondering what I could eat for breakfast, I noticed that the rain was still going on, and that I could hear noises coming from the basement

6. What were other people doing?

I was with my mom and my dad

7. Was the situation frightening?

It was a rainy day, like every other rainy day I've ever remembered. The only unusual thing was how anxious the adults seemed to be getting. The next morning, I began to understand

8. Why/ why not?

I was at home

9. What did you do?

Even though we didn't have power and fixing the basement could get expensive, we were lucky

10. What were people doing after this incident?

The people say their neighbors across the street were in another town living with relatives until their house could be repaired. I couldn't believe how much the flood was affecting us!

11. How did you feel?

It all started two days ago

12. What did you do?

A little water didn't seem too bad, and the power had gone out before, so I wasn't too worried
