

Participles

Melting in the hot sun, Ida rushed to finish her ice cream.

Rewrite the following sentences, replacing the underlined phrase with a suitable participle clause.

1. As they hadn't been arrested, they were able to leave the police station.

.....

2. She fell asleep while she sat in the armchair.

.....

3. Because I can speak Finnish I managed to follow their conversation.

.....

4. So far nobody has claimed the money which we discovered under the floorboards.

.....

5. After he had moved out, Danny found it difficult to find a nice place to stay.

.....

6. If you leave it for too long, oil paint will form a skin.

.....

7. The sea was very rough, which made me feel sick.

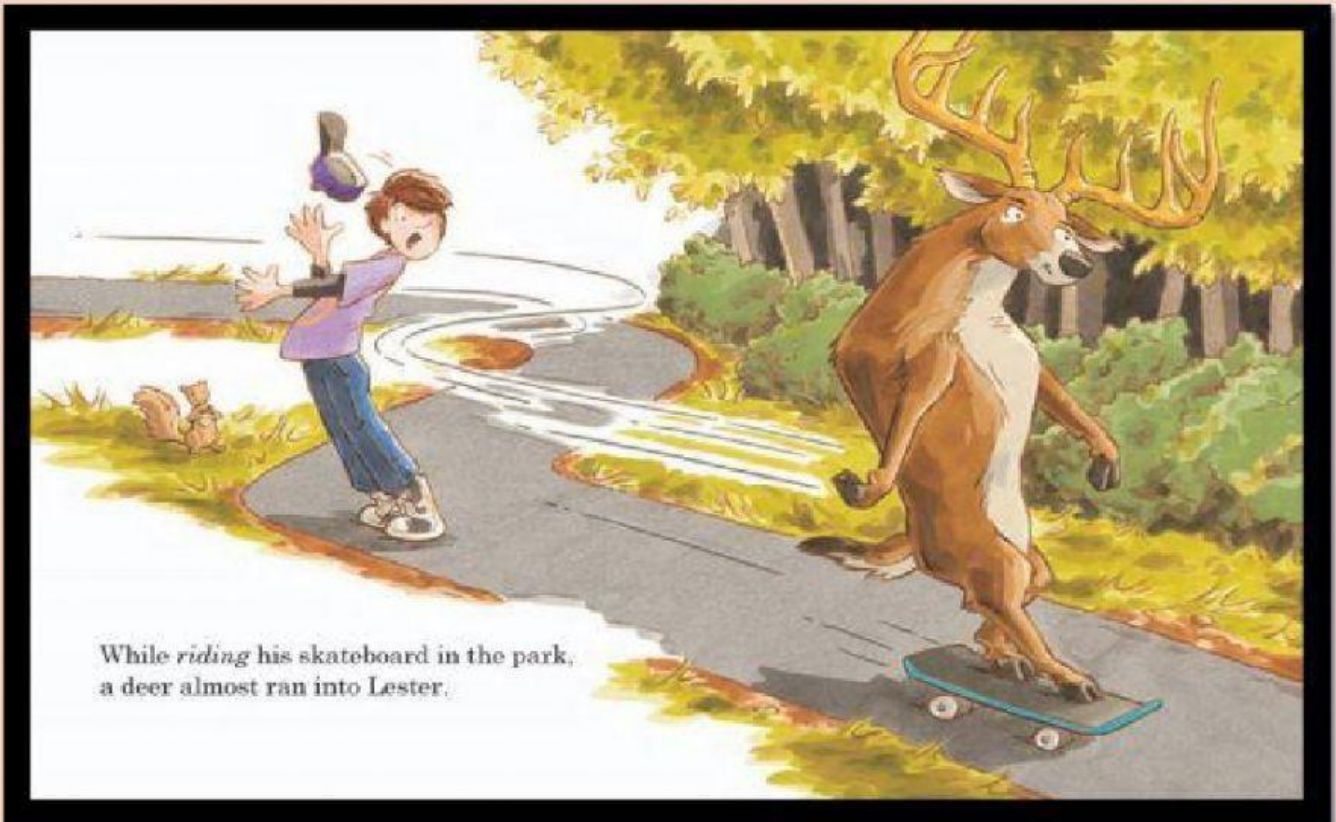

.....

8. As I am not very good with figures, I'll let you do the accounts.

.....

9. This is a house which has been built to last forever.

.....

While riding his skateboard in the park, a deer almost ran into Lester.