

Present and Past Continuous

Use the subject and verb given to make a sentence in the present continuous tense.

Lewis/eat

Petunia/chase

We/fly

The rabbits/hop

I/play

Use the subject and verb given to make a sentence in the past continuous tense.

They/read

You/guess

The choir/sing

Po and Pi/speak

I/clean

Change each sentence into a question.

Do not add or take away any words from the sentence.

The children are looking for their teacher.

We are going to a picnic.

Rolan is taking pictures of birds.

Biko was eating a slice of pizza.

They were trying to climb the wall.

I am vanishing!

Sanele was washing his car.

We were posing for a photo.

Jack is building a house.

You were saying something.

Change each sentence into the negative form.

The children are looking for their teacher.

We are going to a picnic.

Rolan is taking pictures of birds.

Biko was eating a slice of pizza.

They were trying to climb the wall.

I am vanishing!

Sanele was washing his car.

We were posing for a photo.

Jack is building a house.

You were saying something.

Self Assessment and Reflection.

Rate yourself on each criteria from 1-5.

Making sentences in the present continuous tense.

Making sentences in the past continuous tense.

Changing sentences to questions in the continuous tense.

Changing sentences to the negative in the continuous tense.

Reflect on today's lesson.

Today I learned

The best part of the lesson was

The lesson would have been even better if

Check your spelling and punctuation before you submit.