

REWRITE THESE SENTENCES USING PERSONAL PRONOUNS [I – YOU – HE – SHE – IT – WE – YOU- THEY]

- Alice gets up early in the morning. → gets up early in the morning.
- My father drives a sports car. → drives a sports car.
- Ann isn't a doctor. → isn't a doctor.
- Carl and Ricardo are fifteen years old. → are fifteen years old.
- Helen is from London. → from London.
- These are hats for women. → are hats for women.
- My bike is in the garden. → is in the garden.
- The children can play tennis very well. → can play tennis very well.
- Jennifer and I are good friends. → and I are good friends.
- Dogs can't fly. → can't fly.
- My brother has got two balloons. → has got two balloons.
- Tony has got a TV, a computer, and a camera. → has got a TV, a computer, and a camera.
- Lisa is walking to her house. → is walking to her house.
- Simon lives in London. → lives in London.
- Caroline and her brother are dancing. → are dancing.
- What does your mother do in the evening? → What does do in the evening?
- Tony and you like fish. → like fish.
- Does your English teacher like flowers? → Does like flowers?
- My brother and I don't go to bed at 9 o'clock. → don't go to bed at 9 o'clock.
- Are the monkeys eating bananas? → Are eating bananas?