SIMPLE PAST VS PAST CONTINUOUS

Simple Past

We use the simple past to talk about:

Completed actions, habits and facts in the past.

- I went to the cinema yesterday.
- I always visited my grandparents in my summer holidays when I was little.
- I lived near Liverpool for a couple of years.

Past Continuous

The past continuous is used to express:

Interrupted actions, specific time as an interruption and parallel actions.

- I was watching TV when the phone rang.
- Last night at 7pm, I was having dinner.
- While she was doing her homework her brother was playing football.

Recordemos que vamos a utilizar el pasado simple para hablar de acciones en el pasado que fueron completadas. Siempre sabemos cuándo sucedió esa actividad.

En cambio vamos a utilizar el pasado continuo para hablar de una acción en el pasado que se estaba realizando en un momento determinado o bien para acciones que estaban sucediendo en el pasado pero que fueron interrumpidas por otra acción en el pasado (narración de historias).

Como hemos visto anteriormente los verbos en pasado simple pueden ser REGULARES (agregan -d/ -ed/ -ied) o IRREGULARES (cambian, usamos en la tabla de verbos, la segunda columna)

I cooked a delicious pizza last night. (COOK)

My grandfather built his house in 1945. (BUILD)

El pasado continuo de forma con el verbo BE en pasado (WAS/WERE) y el verbo principal con -ing

I was cooking yesterday at 8p.m. (COOK)

The kids were watching TV yesterday at 9. (WATCH)

I was having a bath when the telephone rang. (aquí una acción en progreso fue interrumpida por otra acción)
