

PHRASAL VERBS

Choose the right option in each case

1. The presenter is speaking in such a low voice I cannot make _____ what he is saying.
2. Sam is such a liar! He made _____ a whole story about a trip to Europe, but in fact he has never been abroad.
3. This old film _____ back memories of my youth.
4. I still have a chance; the teacher has not _____ out my passing the final exam yet.
5. When his girlfriend left him and he lost his job, Steve found it hard to get _____ it all.
6. Julia had to give _____ junk food in order to lose weight.
7. It was hard, but I set _____ catching up with my schoolwork and managed to do it within a week.
8. My family and I set _____ Paris before the pandemic, and now we are stuck in a cheap hotel.
9. When the plane crashed into the building, the construction fell _____.
10. The new government is finding it hard to _____ out crime from the streets.
11. Don't worry so much about this problem. I am sure everything will turn _____ all right eventually.
12. _____ out! You'll fall! Hold _____ a sec, I'll help you. There you go. Take it easy.
13. I hate it when some men _____ down to women: they think they are superior.
14. If there is too much social unrest in a country, civil war may break _____.

15. A private conversation between a politician and a well-known trade union leader ____ out yesterday, exposing a chain of corruption.
16. Look ____ for the missing cat; it could be anywhere.
17. It is winter, so it is only natural that the weather ____ up around midday, and then ____ down in the evening.
18. It is not just raining: it is ____ down!
19. His parents died in an accident, so he was ____ up in London by his grandparents.