

Reading

Hi! I am, he is, you are, they are

As we checked,, the verb to be allows us to communicate aspects such as personal information and occupations. In the following activity you will read about the occupations and ages of four people.

Read the paragraphs carefully.

- 1) Hi, My name is Sam; I am a Spanish boy. In this moment I am in a kitchen because I am a chef. The restaurant is very nice and famous. My father is a carpenter. He is forty five years old. Every day he works in carpentry with his two brothers.

- 2) Hello! I am Lorenzo, I am from Ecuador. I am twenty years old. I study in the university in the mornings. In this moment I am in an office because in the afternoons. I work as an office boy.

- 3) Hi! My name is Rosy. I'm from Mexico. I am twenty nine years old. In this moment I am in the third floor of a building under construction because I'm an architect. I like my job very much, it is very interesting.

- 4) Hello! My name is John; I am from Canada and I live in the USA. In this moment I am in the street because I am a policeman. I work many hours. My job is interesting and sometimes dangerous.

Click on Start to answer the questions choosing the right answer. Once you have finished answering the exercise, click on Send and finish and check your results. You can only do the exercise once.

Who Works in the Street?

Who is a carpenter?

How old is Rosy?

Who is policeman?

Who is from Ecuador?