

Must / musn't

1 Complete the sentences with must or mustn't and keep the same meaning.

1. Put the flashdisk in the computer first.

You put the flashdisk in the computer first.

2. Never drive a car when you are sleepy.

You drive a car when you are sleepy.

3. This is a non-smoking restaurant.

You smoke in this restaurant.

4. There is no photography allowed in the gallery.

You take photos in the gallery.

5. You can stay in the hotel room until 10 o'clock.

You leave the hotel room at 10 o'clock.

6. Just do your homework and then you can go out.

You do your homework before you go out.

7. No swimming in the Blue Lake.

You swim in the Blue Lake.

8. Wear a helmet when you go cycling.

You wear a helmet on your bike.

9. Be quiet in my lessons.

You speak in my lessons.

10. Don't eat sweets anymore.

You stop eating sweets.

3 Choose the correct endings to complete the sentences.

1. Let's do it now.
2. Your hands are dirty.
3. My camera is so old.
4. Do you know where Trevor is?
5. You are ill.
6. Your new shoes are perfect.
7. I like speaking English.
8. I have a new boyfriend.
9. Tell me the truth.
10. The party is on Friday.

2 Use must or mustn't to respond to the situations.

1. Can you stay a little longer?

I'm sorry, I go.

2. I'm so tired. Let's go back home.

No, never. We give up.

3. Can you smell it?

Yes, I can. There be a fire somewhere near.

4. Ouch, my back hurts!

You do more exercise.

5. Do you want to study in Boston?

Yes, I do. But I improve my English first.

6. Why are your neighbours so angry?

We make so much noise at night.

7. I want to be the best.

OK. But you cheat.

8. Mum, can I go out now?

Not now. You tidy your room first.

9. I'm afraid it will rain.

We take an umbrella.

10. There are two yellow lines on the road.

We stop here.

- a) But you mustn't tell anyone.
- b) He must be in the garden.
- c) I must practise more.
- d) You mustn't go to work.
- e) You mustn't touch anything.
- f) We must finish it today.
- g) You mustn't tell me lies.
- h) I mustn't forget.
- i) I must buy a new one.
- j) They must be expensive.