WHILE YOU READ

Look for these words. Write down the page number where you first see them. When you're finished, use context clues to match them with their meanings.

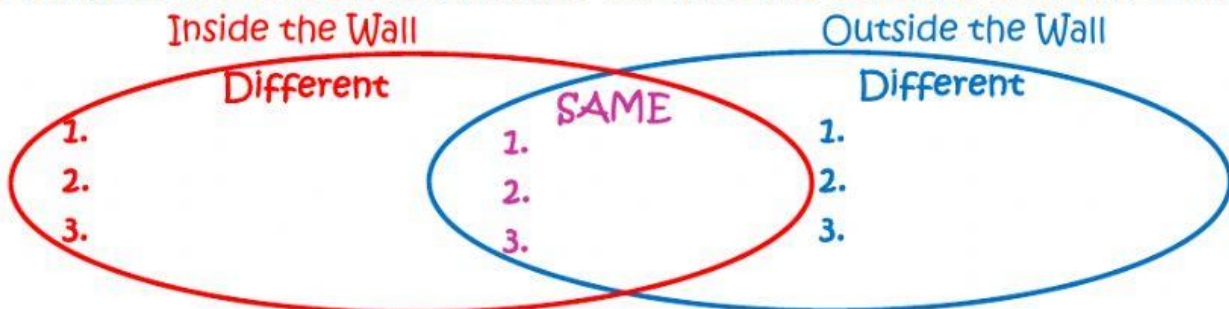

context clue = information you get by looking all around the word page___ faith	extra; you didn't use all the ones you had page___ depravity	has no order or law; wild, random, confusing

page___ spare	has no sense of right or wrong; wickedness page___ chaos	total trust in someone or something page___ privilege	what only a few special people are allowed to do page___ confrontation	an angry meeting about a conflict between 2 people or groups

AFTER YOU READ

setting = where and when a story happens

A huge wall divides the White City into 2 parts. Use the Venn (circle) diagram to compare how these 2 sections are the same and contrast their differences.

Why do you think the city built the wall? _____

Was the wall a good idea? _____ Why? _____

exposition = introduction to a story; gets you ready for the main story

In the exposition, Gabriel finds an abandoned baby. Tell 2 facts you learn about Gabriel's character (what kind of person he is) from this part of the story. _____
