

Do you remember? Jack Johnson

Fill in the blanks with the past form of the verbs:

Do you remember when we first _____ I sure do
But it _____ some time in early September
You _____ lazy about it, you _____ me wait around
I _____ so crazy about you, I _____
So I _____ late for class, I _____ my bike to yours
It _____ hard to find, you _____ flowers on
I guess that I was afraid that if you _____ away
You might not roll back my direction really soon

Match the first with the second column:

- | | |
|--------------------|----------------------------|
| 1. But I was crazy | () still mine |
| 2. The craziest | () rewind |
| 3. Over ten years | () in time |
| 4. And you're | () have gone by |
| 5. We're locked | () about you then and now |
| 6. Let's | () thing of all |

Mark the extra words:

Do you still remember when we first moved in together?
The piano took up the whole living room
You played me boogie-woogie and I played you love songs
You'd say we're playing house but now you still say we are

Fill in the blanks with missing verbs:

We _____ our getaway up in a tree we found
We _____ so far away but we were still in town
Now I remember watching that old tree _____ down
I took a picture that I don't like to _____ at

Put the lines in the correct order:

- () We can't rewind, we're locked in time
- () Well all these times they come and go
- () Do you remember?
- () Over ten years have gone by
- () And alone don't seem so long
- () But you're still mine

- ✓ How was your life 10 years ago? What are your best memories?
- ✓ How did relationships change over the years? Are we living a better or worse life? Explain.