

RECORDS- Comparatives and Superlatives Practice

A. The biggest animals- Complete! Drag and Drop the animal names! Write big, bigger, or biggest.

ostrich	tiger	polar bear	elephant	blue whale

1. The biggest bird is the		The ostrich is very _____
2. The biggest cat is the		The tiger is also very _____
3. The biggest carnivore is the		The polar bear is _____ than the ostrich and the tiger.
4. The biggest land animal is the		The elephant is _____ than the polar bear
5. The biggest animal is the		The blue whale is the _____ animal in the world.

B. The fastest animals: Select the correct options.

	The sailfish is very _____. It is the _____ swimming animal. It can swim at 112 km per hour.
	The cheetah is the _____ runner. It can run at 130 km per hour. It's _____ than the sailfish.
	The peregrine falcon can dive at 320 km per hour. It is _____ than the cheetah and the sailfish. It is the _____ animal in the world.

C. Complete the sentences with the correct option. Write!

- The giraffe is _____ than the zebra. (taller, shorter, tallest, shortest)
- The zebra is _____ than the giraffe. (taller, shorter, tallest, shortest)
- The hummingbird is the _____ bird in the world. (smaller, smallest, bigger, biggest)
- The western diamondback rattlesnake is _____ than the codfish. (longer, longest, shorter, shortest)
- A giraffe can last 3 weeks without water. That is a very _____ time. (long, longer, longest)
- A rat can last one month without water. That is _____ than a giraffe. (long, longer, longest)
- A giraffe can last without water for a _____ time than a rat. (longer, longest, shorter, shortest)
- A camel can last seven months without water. That is the _____ (long, longer, longest)

---	---	---	---	--	---	---