

EMOTIONAL ADJECTIVES

NAME:

Teacher's comments:

PART 1

GLAD

MAD

tranquil	displeased	thrilled	infuriated	satiated
vex	fascinated	wrath	furious	elated

SCARED

SAD

apprehensive	sulky	fidgety	nostalgic	depressed
down in the dumps	jittery	petrified	nervous	disappointed

GLAD METER

5	On cloud nine. Super happy! E.g you won first prize!
4	Excited and looking forward to something. E.g going to Disneyland
3	Very engrossed or interested in something. It has all your attention. E.g watching fireworks.
2	Feeling satisfied or contented, usually after a good meal.
1	Feeling peaceful.

elated

fascinated

satiated

thrilled

tranquil

MAD METER

5	Hatred. You are mad and planning to take revenge.
4	Extreme anger. Your little brother broke your favourite toy and does not want to replace it.
3	Angry, frustrated and impatient. You are late to school and your brother is hogging onto the bathroom
2	You are mildly irritated and it bothers you a little. E.g a fly disturbing you while having a meal.
1	not happy or contented.

vex

displeased

infuriated

wrath

furious

SAD METER

5	Long term sadness. Usually happens after a loved one dies. You are sad for a long, long time.
4	A dump is a place where all your rubbish goes after its collected. Kind of a sad place to be, isn't it?
3	Feeling sad or a longing for happier times in the past. "I was so much happier in my old school. I wish I could go back!"
2	Sad or disappointed because a promise is broken. Mom did not bring you to the toy store like she promised.
1	Unhappy because you didn't get what you wanted, like a child who didn't get the toy she wanted. Hmph!

disappointed

down in the dumps

nostalgic

depressed

sulky

SCARED METER

5	So scared you can't even move. Frozen in terror.
4	Being excited but not in a positive way. Negative excitement. E.g visiting a dentist.
3	Something bad is going to happen but you don't know what. You are worried about the future even though you don't know why.
2	Mixed or worried and anxious. Body shakes or you can't just sit down and relax.
1	So nervous you can't stop moving parts of your body. E.g compulsively shaking your leg.

petrified

apprehensive

fidgety

nervous

jittery

When you add emotional adjectives to facial expressions, it makes your character descriptions more captivating

tranquil	fidgeting	disappointed
petrified	furious	fascinated

1. Watching the beautiful waves playfully touch the shores, I felt _____.
My eyes crinkled in joy.
2. The loud sound froze her in her tracks. Her face turned as pale as a sheet and her bloodshot eyes widened. She was _____.
3. Janice was so nervous that she could not stop _____. She kept twiddling her thumbs as she waited for her test results to come back.
4. The moment her Mother informed Maika she would not be going swimming as promised, Maika's face drooped and her lips pouted. Maika was _____ with her Mother.
5. Clara let out a hearty chuckle as the beautiful fireworks formed colourful patterns in the sky. She was _____ by the beauty.
6. Like an angry dog, John snarled at me, baring his teeth. He was _____ that I had broken his favourite toy into smithereens.

satiated	displeasure	sulking
vexed	jittery	thrilled

7. After eating the dish fit for the gods, Padma grinned from ear to ear. He patted his tummy and was feeling _____.

8. The annoying fly would not go away and was determined to sit on Vera's nose. Vera frowned and was feeling _____.

9. Upon seeing the crimson red, 'F' on my test paper, Mother frowned and showed her _____.

10. The children bounced up and down, their eyes crinkling with joy. They were _____ that they were going to Disneyland.

11. The moment Xin Yu knew that Mother was not giving in to her whim and buying her the toy, she began _____. It didn't take long for Xin Yu to throw a tantrum and stomp around the toy store in anger.

12. Yu Xiang was feeling _____ while waiting for his test results.

He simply could not relax. His face was pale as a sheet as he paced up and down the room.

nostalgia	nervous
infuriation	wrath
depressed

13. Mr. Jenkins was never the same again after his wife passed on. A smile never spread across his face nor did he let out his signature hearty chuckle. The poor old man was _____.

14. Jane was feeling excited alright, but not in a good way. Why would she? It was a visit to the dentist after all. Her bloodshot eyes widened and her hands were clammy. Jane was feeling _____.

15. Despite asking Kate for the umpteenth time to clean her dishes, it was obvious the request had fallen on deaf ears. As I spotted the crusty plates piled up on the sink, my _____ grew.

16. The step mother had an unexplainable _____ towards Cinderella. She simply hated seeing the girl. Every time, Cinderella crosses her line of vision, the woman's face would turn a crimson red.

17. Every time, Yu Xiang sees his old school, a wave of _____ would hit him. He would lower his eyes and reminisce of happier times he had with his old school mates, especially his favourite friend - Xin Yu.