

Do the plants live in water or in land?

We see different types of plants around us.

Plants are living things. They breathe and grow. They also reproduce. Most of the plants grow on land. Some plants grow in water. Plants are very useful to us. Some plants are big and strong. Some plants are small and weak.

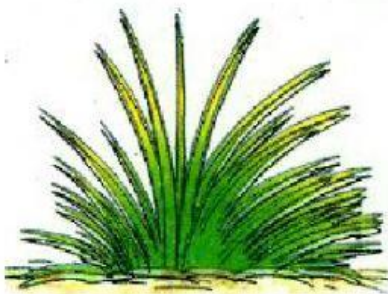

1. Look at the pictures and choose the correct answer.

Wheat

Lotus

Grass

Mint

Water lily

Cactus