

Read the text and answer the questions. Write complete

sentences. Use capitalization and punctuation correctly.

PARTS OF THE PLANT

A plant has different parts that help it grow. Roots bring up water from the dirt. The stem holds up the plant. The leaves use the sun's energy to make food for the plant. The flower can make seeds or fruit. The fruit protects the seeds. The seed make new plants.

Why does a plant have different parts?

Why are roots important?

What does the stem do for the plant?

What does the fruit protect?

What part of the plant makes new plants?

PROJECT: Imagine you are going to plant a seed.

Complete the information.

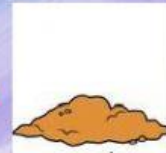

What fruit do you want to plant?

I want to plant _____ seeds.

What will you need? I will need _____,

_____, _____, and _____.

