

Watch the Youtube video on modal verbs for advising and then answer the questions.

1. Which modal verbs are covered in the video?

-
2. Complete this sentence, "We use _____ when we're talking about the right thing to do."
3. The speaker used an if-clause to say that you shouldn't eat ice cream. Use the speaker's exact words:

-
4. How do you make a past-tense sentence with should? (Describe the grammar)

-
5. Past participles are the verb forms that we use with passive voice and with perfect tenses. What are the past tenses and past participles for the following verbs? Complete the chart:

Simple form (infinitive)	Past tense form	Past participle form like Tell
Smoke
Eat
Drive
Exercise
Drink

6. Write a sentence in the past tense using should with the verb drink:

7. The speaker says that there is a difference between should and ought to. What are the differences?

8. The speaker says that modal verbs can be arranged from strongest to less strong. Fill in the blanks:

←-----→
Less Strong Strong

9. According to the speaker, which modal verb can you use in all situations? _____

10. Which modal verb can you use only with present or future tenses? _____

11. Fill in the chart. What are the negatives for the following modal verbs?

Positive / Affirmative	Negative
had better ought to should

12. What are the answers to the 3 exercises in the video? Write the complete sentences.

1.
2.
3.