

Declarative & Interrogative Sentences

I. Write “D” if the sentence is declarative or “I” if the sentence is interrogative.

1. Maria used to be my best friend.
2. Who is your teacher?
3. Which is your favorite icecream?
4. Miss Gaby and Miss Becky work together in 4th grade.
5. Does anyone have a question about the recent explanation?
6. Is this your brother's notebook?
7. Are you sure this is the right building?
8. Next semester, our schedule changes entirely.
9. "Plants and animals" is one of the topics we will study this quarter.
10. Is she kidding?

II. Choose the correct sentence.

11. Which is a declarative sentence?

- a) What time are we leaving?
- b) I need my computer now!
- c) The weather in Monterrey is unpredictable.
- d) Surprise!

13. Which is a declarative sentence?

- a) Play with me right this moment.
- b) NO!
- c) Are you going to Fer's party?
- d) This year our school year will be online.

12. Which is an interrogative sentence?

- a) Our music teacher this year is Mr. Sergio Mendez.
- b) Do you remember what happened on the last field trip?
- c) Excellent!
- d) Go to work now.

14. Which is an interrogative sentence?

- a) Are they the friends you met last year?
- b) Stop
- c) Happy Birthday!
- d) Bart and Lisa Simpson are siblings.