

Reading comprehension 1: what makes a pretty face?

Read carefully and choose the correct option.

We all know we shouldn't define people based on their looks beauty/face is only skin-deep, as the saying goes. Also, someone's appearance/ brain doesn't tell us anything about how kind they are. Or how confident. Or anything else about their appearance/personality

But it's difficult to ignore the way a person looks. Something about attractive/beauty people makes us want to watch them. We can't take our eyes off a researchers/good looking actor, actress or model. As such, beauty has power over us. But what is beauty?

There is no simple answer but researchers/faces have begun probing how beauty brain/affects. The behavior of humans and other animals. Through this work, especially, they have discovered some of the characteristics/appearance that makes an individual attractive to others

Scientists are also learning that there may be a reason to our obsession with beauty. A pretty characteristics /face may belong to a healthier person. Or it may simply be easier for our brain/affects to process.