

CHOOSE THE CORRECT OPTION

Earworms are experienced by:

- ☐ A Most people
- ☐ B Some people
- ☐ C A few people
- ☐ D Only people with experience playing an instrument

Most earworms are composed of a:

- ☐ A Timbre
- ☐ B String of harmonies
- ☐ C Tune
- ☐ D Texture

A story by Mark Twain is one piece of evidence that:

- ☐ A Only people in certain cultures are susceptible to earworms
- ☐ B Earworms existed before the advent of modern recording technology
- ☐ C Earworms are not important
- ☐ D Earworms can be cured

People are more likely to experience earworms when:

- ☐ A They've been exposed to a song recently and repeatedly
- ☐ B They've tried to ignore a song
- ☐ C They've never heard a song before
- ☐ D They're busy engaging in a strenuous task

Music is especially susceptible to getting stuck in our heads because:

- ☐ A Most people like music
- ☐ B It isn't; other things are equally likely to get stuck in our heads
- ☐ C Music is similar to language
- ☐ D We don't know exactly why