Say or Tell?

WRITE the correct word for the blank space in each sentence.

1. I don't know if she's _____ [ telling / saying / said ] the truth.

2. Not _____ [ saying / told / telling ] 'thank you' for your gift isn't polite!

3. Can you _____ [ tell / said / say ] the difference between Pepsi and Coke?

4. He's _____ [ told / saying / telling ] lies - they didn't steal his wallet.

5. You won't _____ [ tell / say / telling ] anything, will you? It's a secret.

6. He _____ [ says / tells / said ] really bad jokes.

7. Don't _____ [ say / tell / says ] me what to do!

8. We were _____ [ telling / saying / said ] a prayer for the family when news came.

9. She told me to _____ [ tell / says / say ] hello to you.

10. We _____ [ told / said / saying ] goodbye at the departure gate.

11. He _____ [ told / said / telling ] them off for arriving late to class.

12. He didn't _____ [ said / say / tell ] sorry because he never apologises.

Write new sentences using expressions above:

...........................................................................................................................................................................

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Say or Tell?

WRITE the correct word for the blank space in each sentence.

1. I don't know if she's telling [ telling / saying / said ] the truth.

2. Not saying [ saying / told / telling ] 'thank you' for your gift isn't polite!

3. Can you tell [ tell / said / say ] the difference between Pepsi and Coke?

4. He's telling [ told / saying / telling ] lies - they didn't steal his wallet.

5. You won't say [ tell / say / telling ] anything, will you? It's a secret.

6. He tells [ says / tells / said ] really bad jokes.

7. Don't tell [ say / tell / says ] me what to do!

8. We were saying [ telling / saying / said ] a prayer for the family when news came.

9. She told me to say [ tell / says / say ] hello to you.

10. We said [ told / said / saying ] goodbye at the departure gate.

11. He told [ told / said / telling ] them off for arriving late to class.

12. He didn't say [ said / say / tell ] sorry because he never apologises.

Write new sentences using expressions above:

[Student worksheet has a 7 line writing exercise here.]