

BRING IT TOGETHER

- 9 Choose the correct options 1–6 to complete the email. Sometimes both forms are possible.

Hi Xana,

Sorry I've been slow to reply to your last email.

Recently I've ⁽¹⁾ stayed / ~~been staying~~ in a place without any internet access. Just imagine – I haven't ⁽²⁾ used / been using Facebook or Twitter ^(a) for a whole week! :) I'm only writing now because we've found a local town with an internet café.

^(b) _____ last Saturday Lia and I have been staying in Gankoyama, a tiny Japanese village built in the tree-tops! Lia has ⁽³⁾ wanted / been wanting to visit the village ^(c) _____ ages, because it's really eco-friendly. Since we arrived, we've ⁽⁴⁾ learnt / been learning how to build our own tree house and survive in the forest. We've also ⁽⁵⁾ done / been doing a nature walk – the wildlife here is amazing! We haven't seen any monkeys ^(d) _____, but we've ^(e) _____ seen lots of green pheasants and Sika deer! I've never felt so close to nature before.

How are you? ⁽⁶⁾ Have you had / Have you been having your summer holiday

^(f) _____?

Write back soon!

Seto

- 10 Complete gaps a–f in the email in 9 with already, for, since and yet.

6 Choose the correct form of the verbs. Sometimes both forms are correct.

- 1 Juan has worked / been working on the farm all afternoon.
- 2 I've never wanted / been wanting to be a farmer.
- 3 Carla has stayed / been staying with us since the hurricane.
- 4 Local people have fished / been fishing in this river for hundreds of years.
- 5 I've loved / been loving this place since the first time I came here.
- 6 Have you ever thought / been thinking about moving abroad?