

Vocabulary

1 Complete the phrases with go, keep or make.

- 1    ___ a decision
- 2    ___ a difference
- 3    ___ a secret
- 4    ___ abroad for a vacation
- 5    ___ calm
- 6    ___ control
- 7    ___ in touch
- 8    ___ it to the finals
- 9    ___ crazy
- 10  ___ someone's dreams come true

2 Match the statements (1–10) to the next sentence (a–j).

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 1    I'm going to the USA this summer.            | a    I always keep calm.                  |
| 2    I won the game.                              | b    Let's go for a walk.                 |
| 3    I can't tell anyone.                         | c    I've made my dreams come true.       |
| 4    Don't stop writing to me.                    | d    I must keep her secret.              |
| 5    I never panic.                               | e    I want to keep control of it.        |
| 6    I've done the things I always wanted to do.  | f    I'm looking forward to going abroad. |
| 7    I know what to do.                           | g    I've made a decision.                |
| 8    I feel like going out.                       | h    I've made it to the finals.          |
| 9    I don't like other people managing my money. | i    It made a big difference.            |
| 10  It had an important effect on me.             | j    Keep in touch.                       |

---

Complete the make, go and keep collocations in the text. Write one word in each blank.

In 2009 an ordinary, 48-year-old woman surprised the world with her beautiful singing on Britain's Got Talent. Fans  crazy when Susan Boyle made  to the finals. The judges found it difficult to  control!

In the finals, a dance group won first prize, but fans of the show still made Susan's dreams come . Her first album was number one around the world!

Fame quickly made  big difference in Susan's life. She became rich and performed in many different countries, including the US and Australia. But she says she still enjoys "ordinary" hobbies. She goes  walks, meets friends—and she loves spending time with her cat!