

What you don't do.

Lianne La Havas

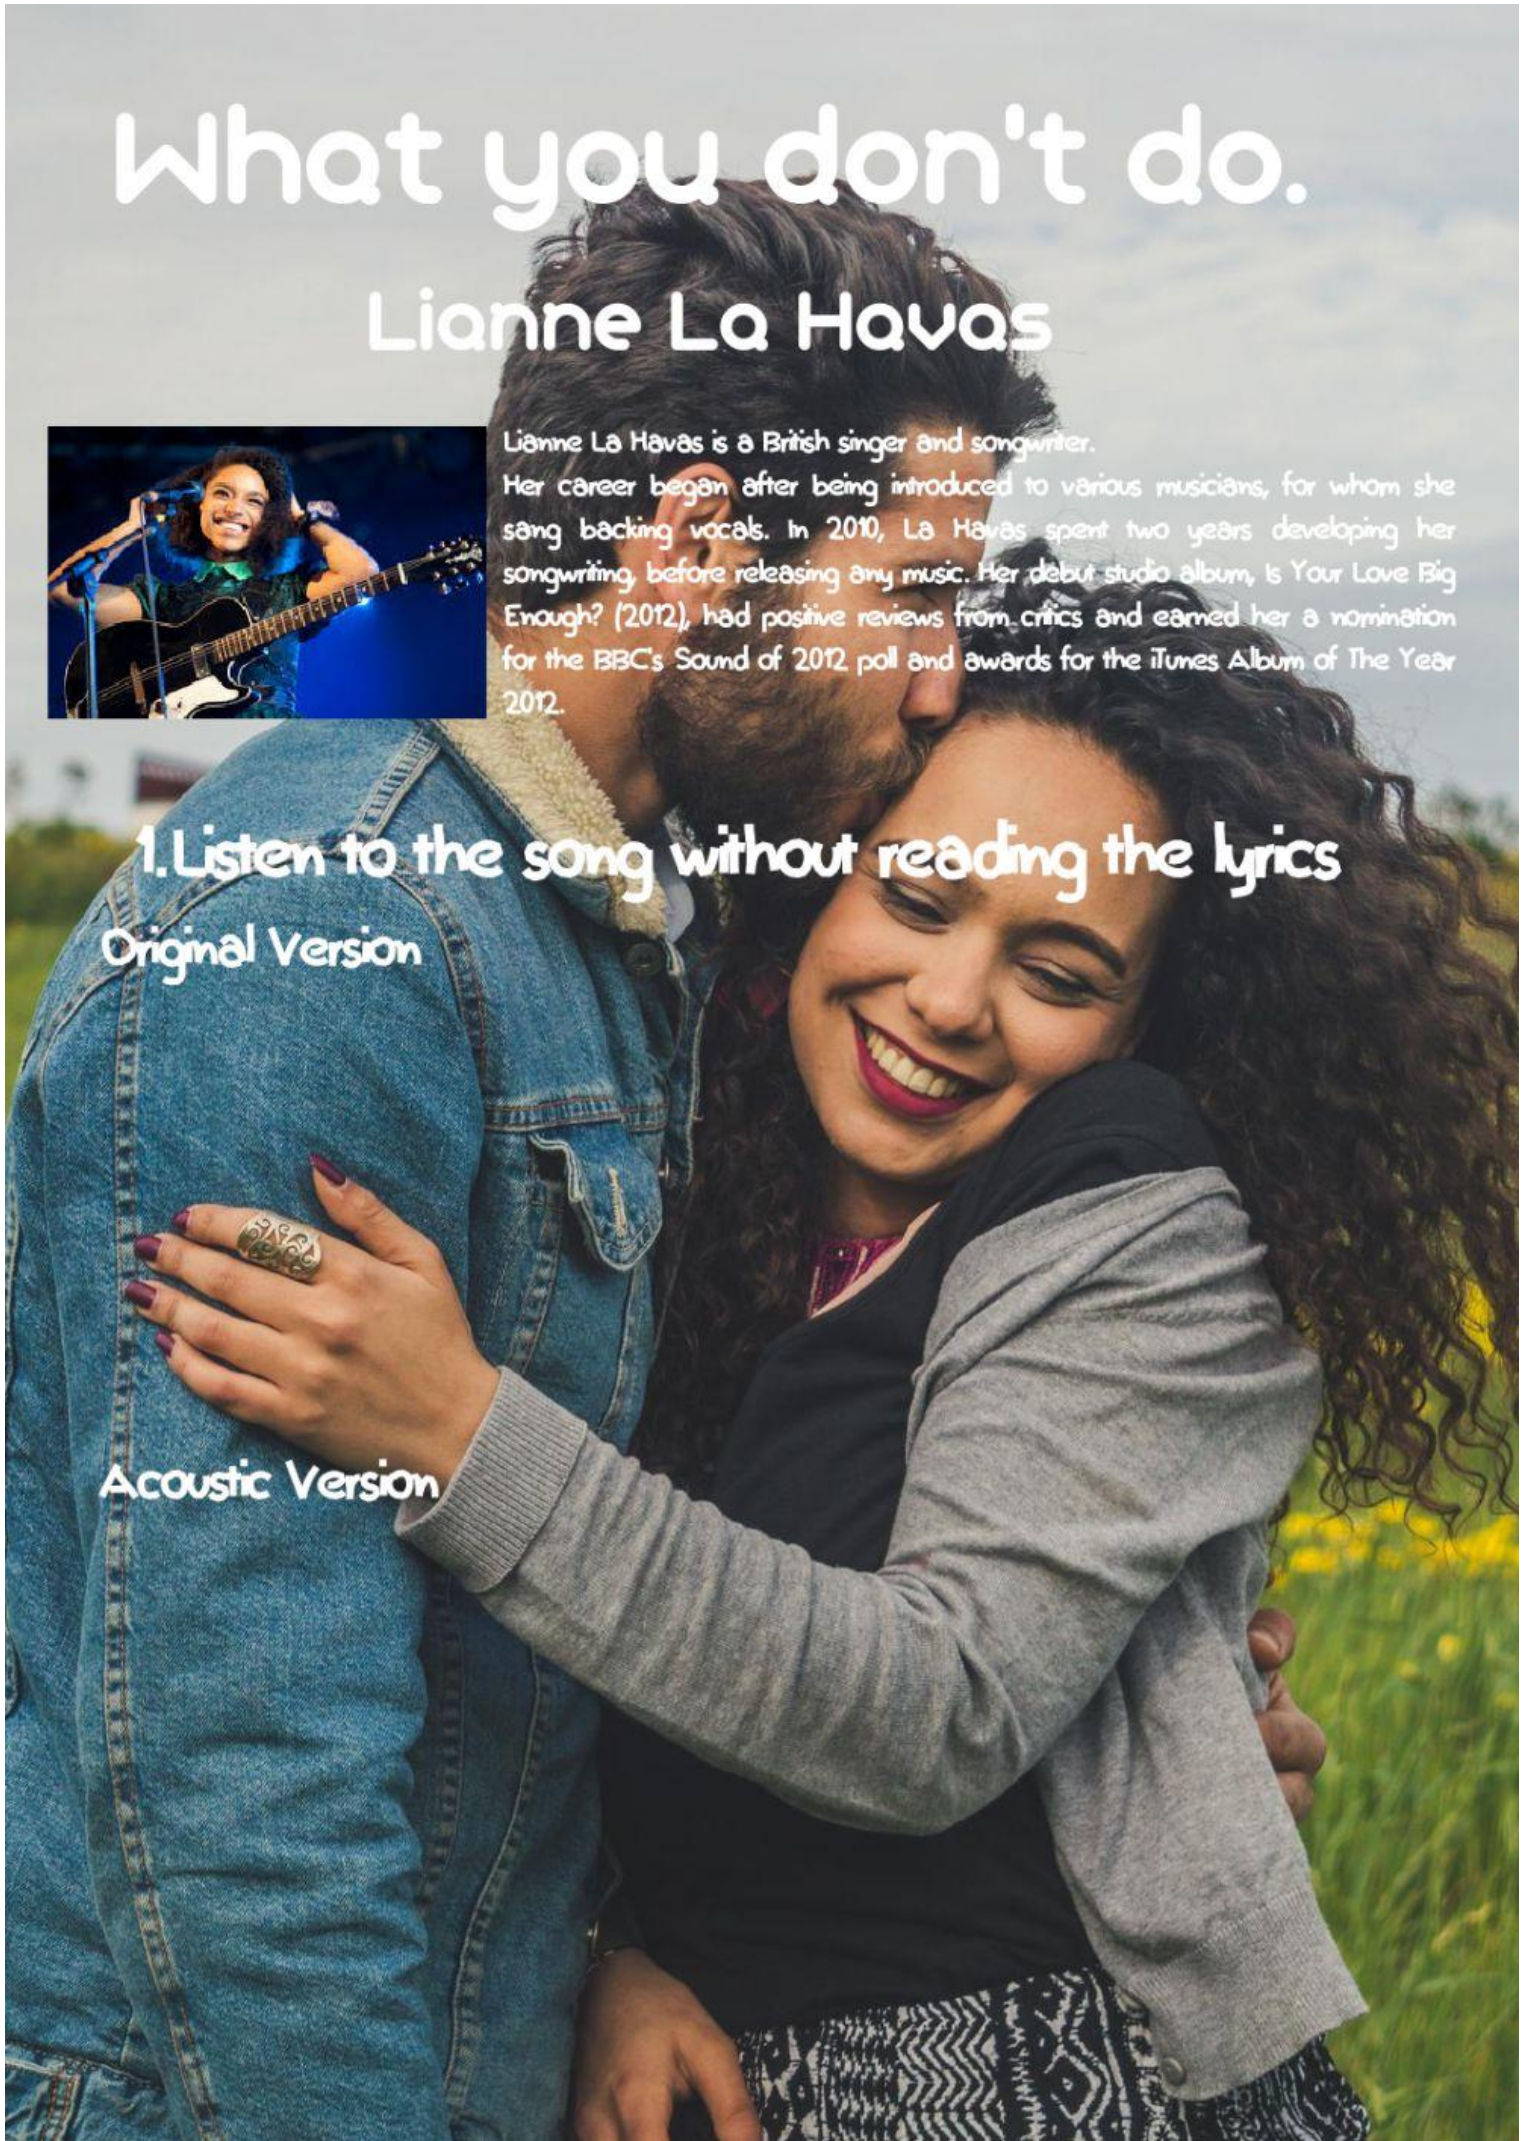

Lianne La Havas is a British singer and songwriter.

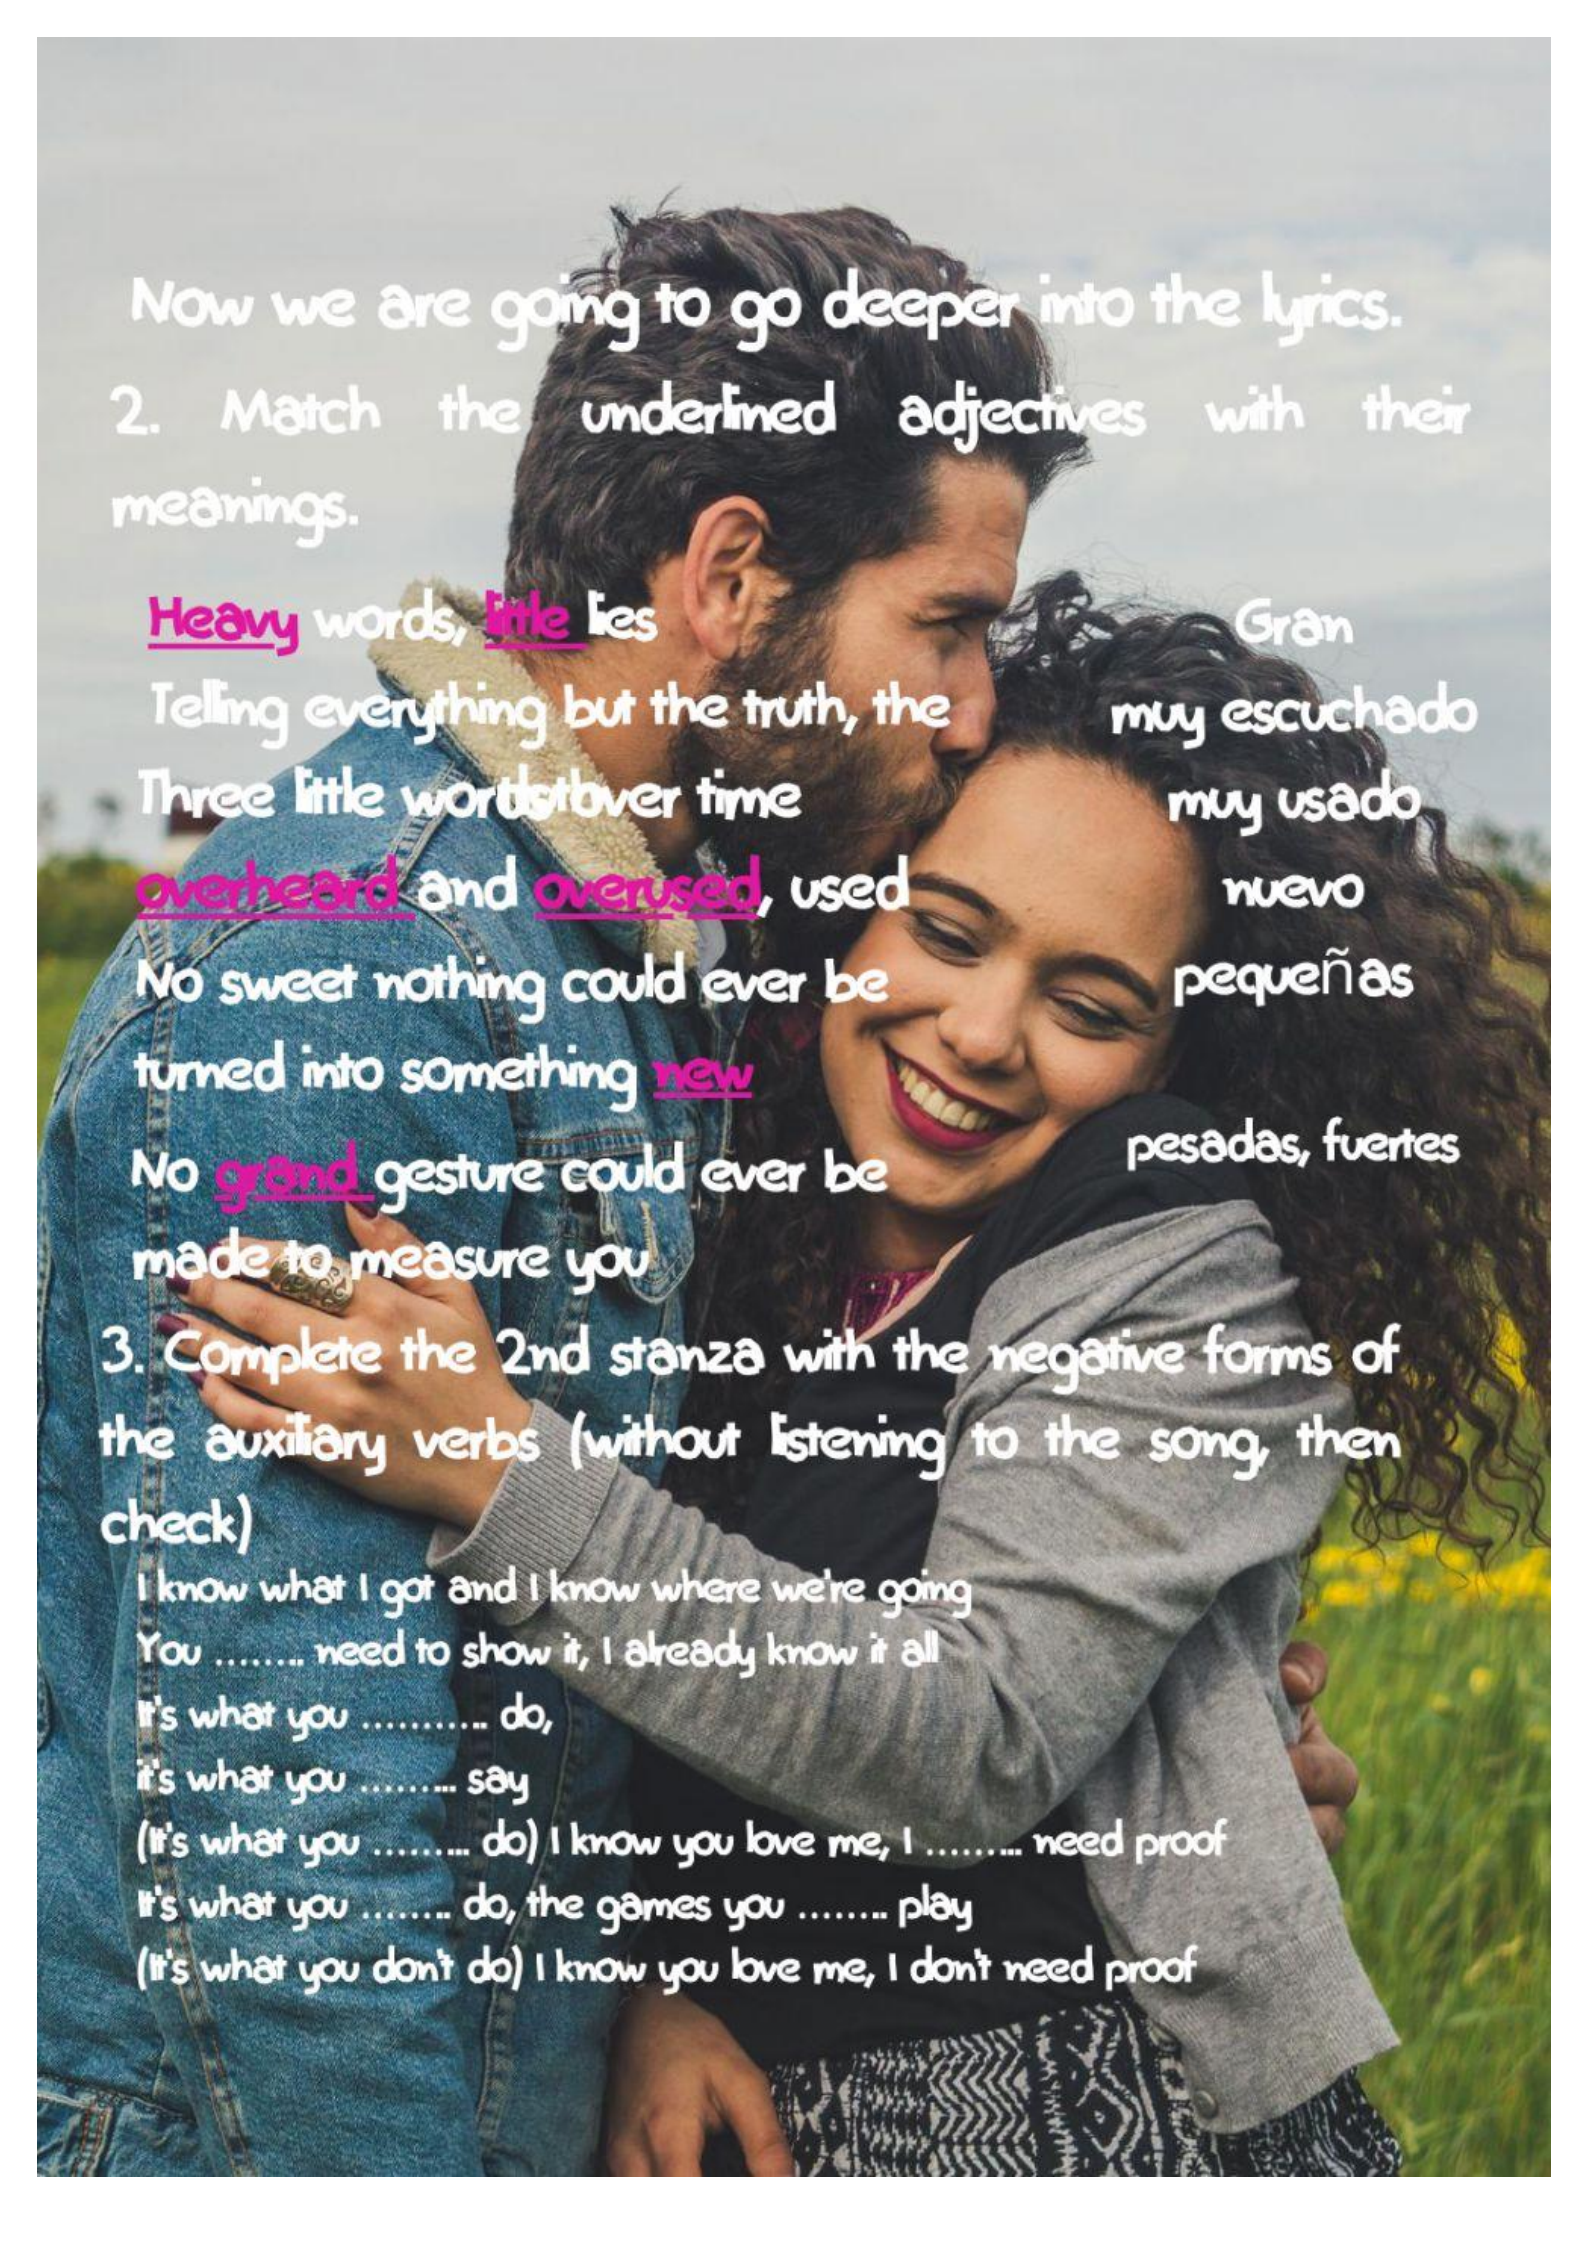

Her career began after being introduced to various musicians, for whom she sang backing vocals. In 2010, La Havas spent two years developing her songwriting, before releasing any music. Her debut studio album, Is Your Love Big Enough? (2012), had positive reviews from critics and earned her a nomination for the BBC's Sound of 2012 poll and awards for the iTunes Album of The Year 2012.

1. Listen to the song without reading the lyrics

Original Version

Acoustic Version

Now we are going to go deeper into the lyrics.

2. Match the underlined adjectives with their meanings.

Heavy words, little lies

Gran

Telling everything but the truth, the muy escuchado

Three little words over time

muy usado

overheard and overused, used nuevo

No sweet nothing could ever be pequeñas turned into something new

No grand gesture could ever be pesadas, fuertes

made to measure you

3. Complete the 2nd stanza with the negative forms of the auxiliary verbs (without listening to the song, then check)

I know what I got and I know where we're going

You need to show it, I already know it all

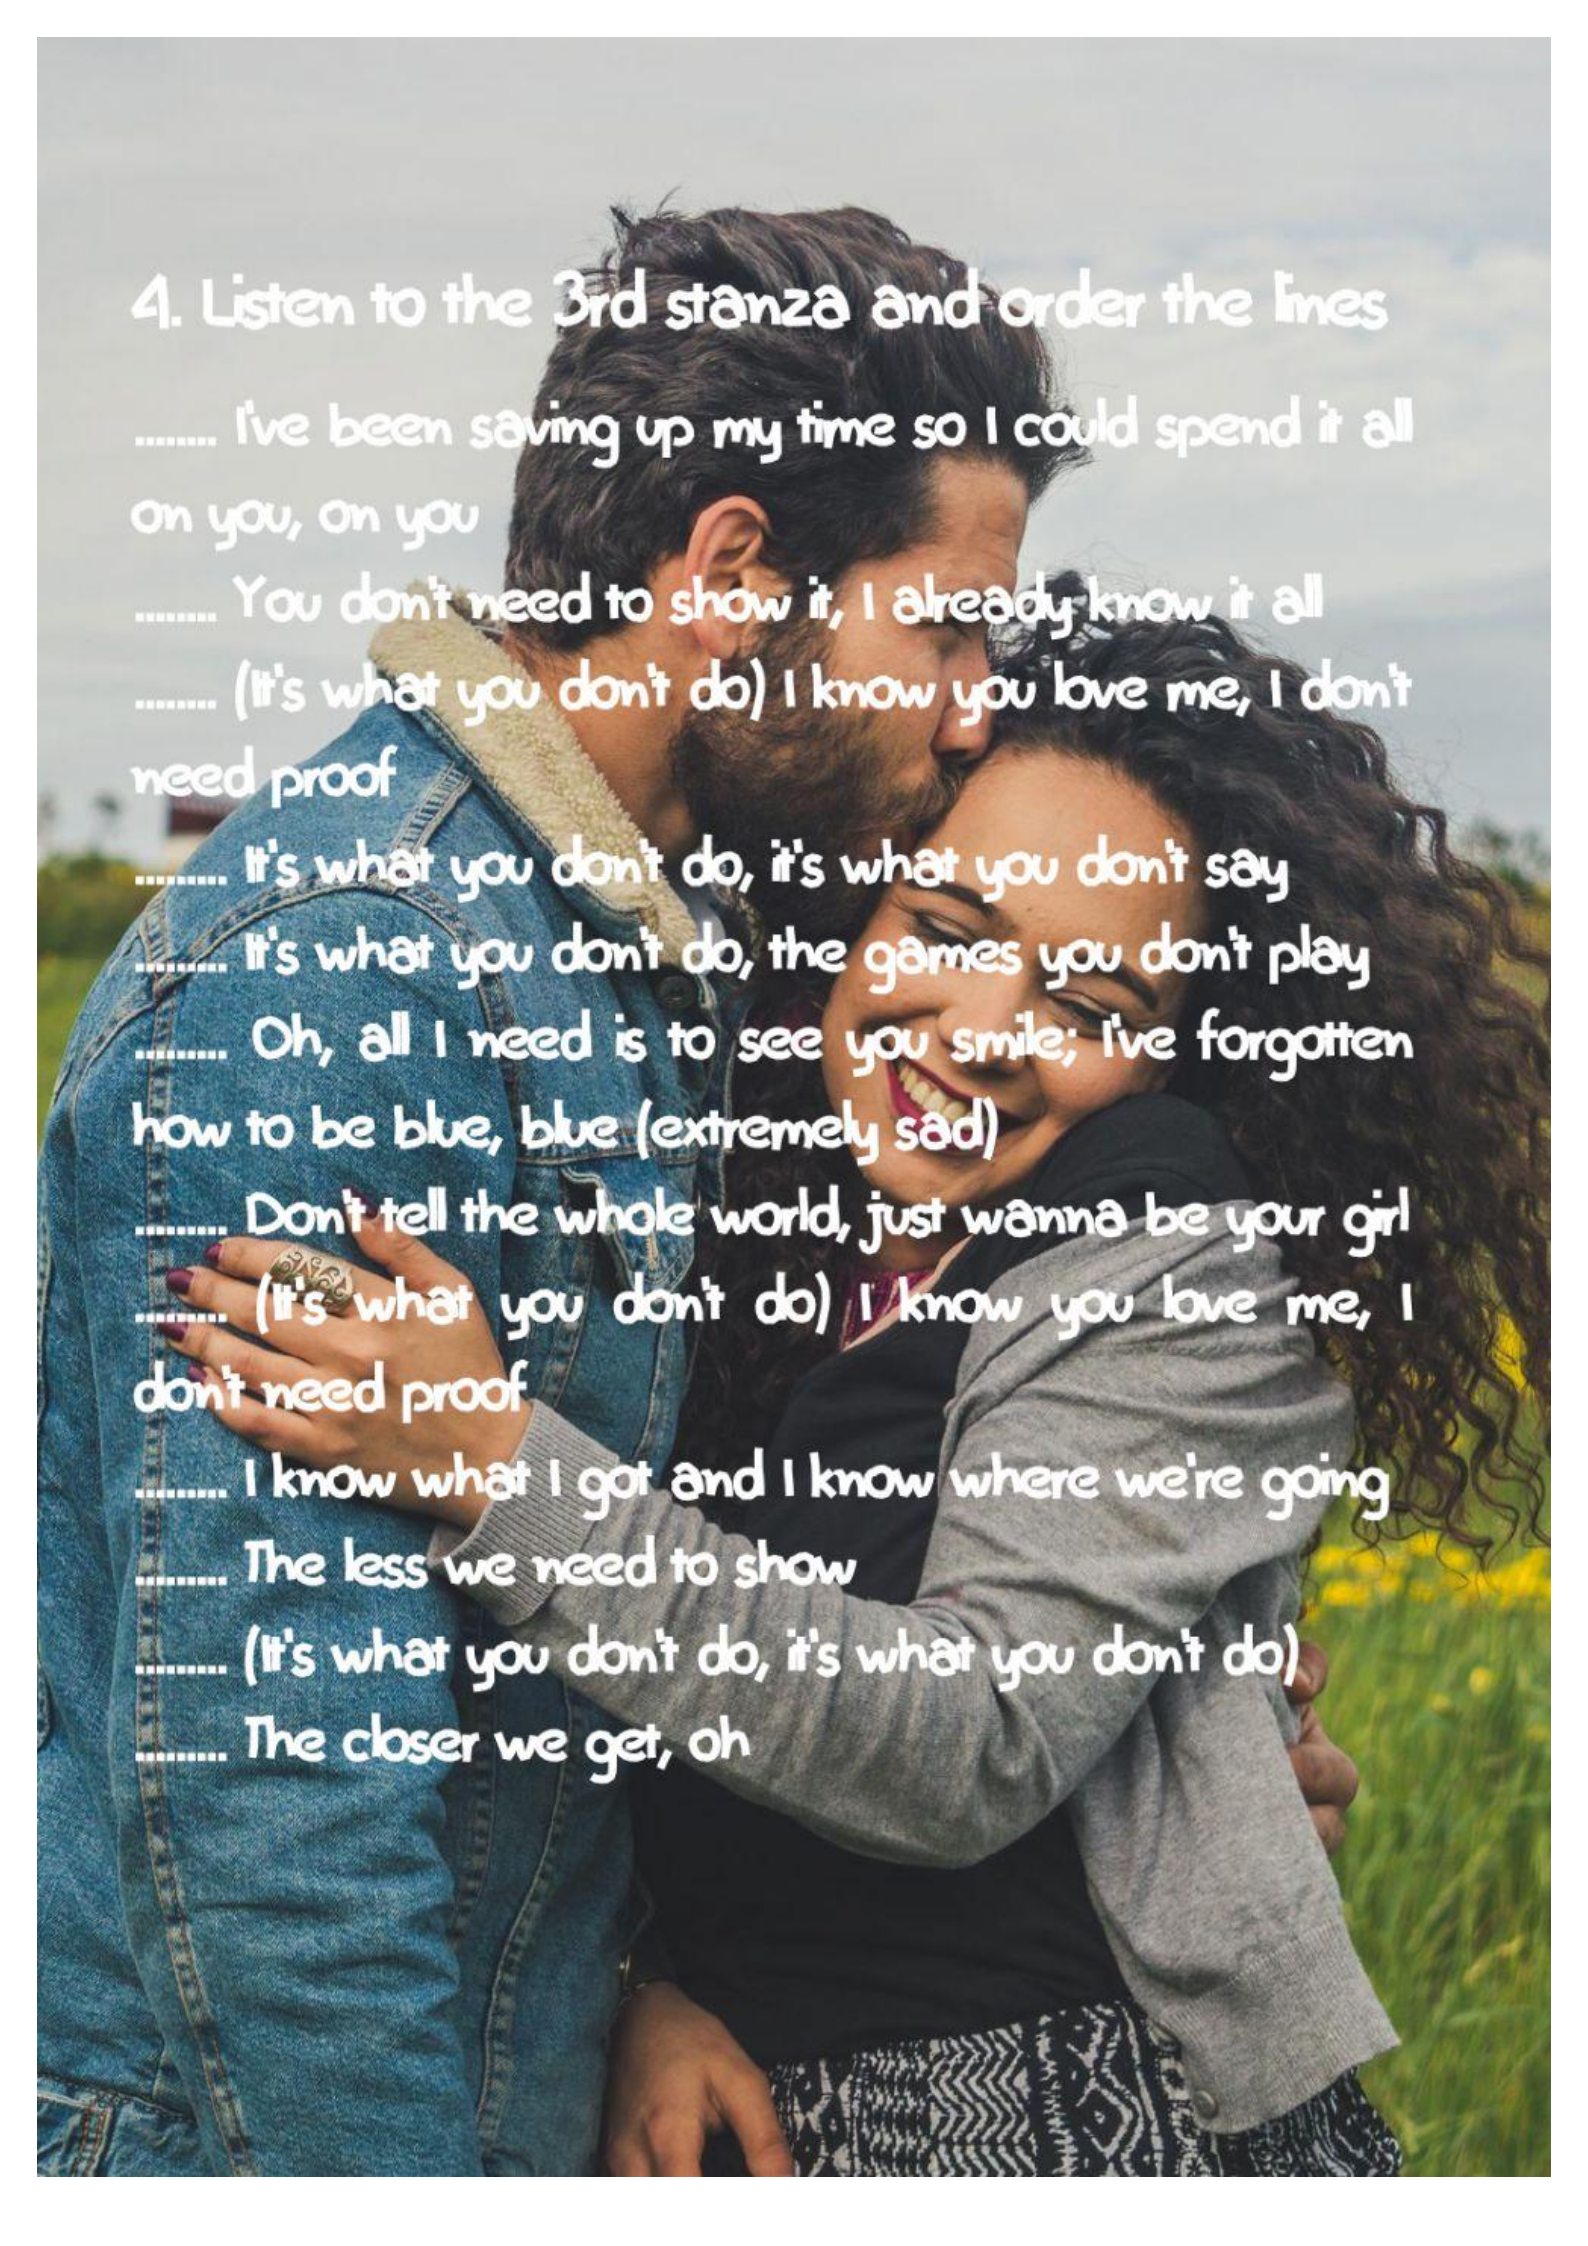

It's what you do,

it's what you say

(It's what you do) I know you love me, I need proof

It's what you do, the games you play

(It's what you don't do) I know you love me, I don't need proof

A man with dark hair and a beard, wearing a blue denim jacket, is embracing a woman with long, curly dark hair. The woman is wearing a grey hoodie and a patterned skirt, and she is smiling. They are standing in a field of tall green grass with yellow wildflowers. The background is a cloudy sky.

4. Listen to the 3rd stanza and order the lines

..... I've been saving up my time so I could spend it all on you, on you

..... You don't need to show it, I already know it all

..... (It's what you don't do) I know you love me, I don't need proof

..... It's what you don't do, it's what you don't say

..... It's what you don't do, the games you don't play

..... Oh, all I need is to see you smile; I've forgotten how to be blue, blue (extremely sad)

..... Don't tell the whole world, just wanna be your girl

..... (It's what you don't do) I know you love me, I don't need proof

..... I know what I got and I know where we're going

..... The less we need to show

..... (It's what you don't do, it's what you don't do)

..... The closer we get, oh