

PRESENT CONTINUOUS, PAST SIMPLE, PRESENT PERFECT, PRESENT PERFECT CONTINUOUS

1, Mr. and Mrs. Smith (to argue)_____ at the dinner table. After half an hour Mrs. Smith said, 'I (to have)_____ enough. One more word out of you and I (to go back)_____ to live with my mother".

Mr. Smith looked at his wife and then shouted "Taxi!".

2. Dad. What do you call a small brown thing with ten legs and green eyes?

- I don't know son. Why do you ask?

-Well, one _____ along your lettuce just before you _____ it! (crawl, eat)

3. -Doctor, I am very nervous. This is the first time I _____ an operation (ever, need).

- Don't worry, I feel the same. This is the first operation I _____ (ever, perform).

4. What do you do?

- I am a sailor.

- _____ (you, work) on a submarine?

- No, I can't sleep with the windows closed.

5. It was my husband's birthday yesterday, and he said, "Take me somewhere I _____ (never, be) before.

-So, where did you take him?

- Into the kitchen.

6. Who _____ (eat) my porridge? Said Baby Bear.

-Who _____ (eat) my porridge? Said Daddy Bear.

- Don't get excited, said Mother Bear. I _____ (not to make) it yet.

7. - Paul, _____ (you, fight) again? You _____ (lose) your two front teeth.

- No, I _____, Mum. They're in my pocket.

