DELSOL
THE SCHOOL
HEAD OFFICE

Geography

Grade 6

Unit 1: It's your planet!

first	Earth	Precambrian	Eon
Era	Phanerozoic	three eras
Silurian	coal bearing	Cretaceous
Cambria	geological timescale

Unit 1.3-Earth's story: the timescale

Choose words given in the box above to fill in the blanks below:

1. _____is 4.5 billion years old.
2. _____means an indefinite long period of time.
3. Scientists have divided the time since the beginning of the earth into blocks and they call it_____.
4. The _____huge block is called Precambrian eon.
5. _____eon lasted until the first simple animals appeared.
6. After Precambrian Eon is the _____eon. It is the one we are living in.
7. The Phanerozoic Eon is divided into_____.
8. _____is a period of time known for particular events or developments.
9. The _____period is named after the Silures, a Celtic tribe who lived in Wales.
10. Carboniferous means_____.
11. _____is a Latin word for chalk.
12. _____is the old name for Wales.

Drag the name of each period and drop it at its place.

ORDOVICIAN JURASSIC SILURIAN PERMIAN CAMBRIAN TRIASSIC DEVONIAN CRETACEOUS

