

“Children’s Rights”

Match the Concept with the Children Right:

Children have the right to be protected from doing work that is dangerous or bad for their education, health or development.

All children have all these rights, no matter who they are, where they live, what language they speak, what their religion is, what they think, what they look like, if they are a boy or girl, etc.

Children have the right to get help if they have been hurt, neglected, treated badly or affected by war, so they can get back their health and dignity.

Non-discrimination

Protection from harmful work.

Recovery and reintegration

Match the Concept with the Children Right:

When adults make decisions, they should think about how their decisions will affect children.

Social and Economic help.

Governments must make sure that children are not kidnapped or sold, or taken to other countries or places to be exploited (taken advantage of).

Prevention of sale or trafficking

Governments should provide money or other support to help children from poor families.

Best interests of the child

Match the Concept with the Children Right:

Children have the right to the best health care possible, clean water to drink, healthy food and a clean and safe environment to live in.

Every child has the right to be alive. Governments must make sure that children survive and develop in the best possible way.

Children have the right to food, clothing and a safe place to live so they can develop in the best possible way.

Life, survival and development

Food, clothing,
a safe home.

Health, water,
food,
environment.

Match the Concept with the Children Right:

Every child has the right to privacy.

Children must be registered when they are born and given a name which is officially recognized by the government.

Children can join or set up groups or organisations.

Setting up or joining groups

Protection of privacy

Name and nationality

Match the Concept with the Children Right:

Children can choose their own thoughts, opinions and religion.

Children have the right to get information from the Internet, radio, television, newspapers, books and other sources.

Children who move from their home country to another country as refugees

Access to information.

Freedom of thought and religion.

Refugee children