

PREPOSITION OF PLACE

IN - ON - AT

FILL IN THE BLANKS USING THE RIGHT PREPOSITION
(AT-IN OR ON)

There is an apple the plate.

She is waiting the bus stop.

When he arrived I was not the hotel.

The words the letter made her happy.

They are the cinema right now.

There is a man the door with a box of chocolates.

Who is the girl the photo?

Open your books page 58.

My parents were born a small village.

The man the blue suit is my boss.

Look! The dog is hiding the box.

I was the dentist yesterday.

Paul and Sue are driving their car.

He had his hair dyed the hairdresser's.

He is his girlfriend's house.

She is riding her new motorbike.

They were sitting a bench the park.

There is nothing your mouth.

There are some clouds the sky.

They are France on holiday.

She is diving the sea for the first time.

There is a wreath the door.

Mary and Bob are the pool.

They are waiting the queue.

There is a cup of coffee the table.

Martha is the garden watering the plants.

He is holding a pencil his hand.

You must turn right the traffic lights.

People asked a lot of questions the conference.

Ted is punished the corner of the room.

She's wearing a hat her head.

Bill is fishing the river.

He's looking at himself the mirror.

Susan is the plane to Madrid.

London is the river Thames.