

USED TO

Choose the correct form of the verbs. You may need the Past Simple, the Past Continuous and Used to.

1. Mary met her husband while she worked / was working / used to work in the States.
2. Why does Warren keep shouting at people? He wasn't / wasn't being / didn't use to be so bad-tempered.
3. How long is it since you had / were having / used to have a holiday?
4. The government provided / were providing / used to provide much more help for disabled people than they do now.
5. It's all very well complaining you haven't any money, but while you were travelling around the world, I studied / was studying / used to study sixteen hours a day for my exams.
6. The only time I never rode / was riding / used to ride a horse, I fell / was falling / used to fall off in the first five minutes.