

UNIT 5 C

VOCABULARY: ADJECTIVES PREFIXES

 5.10 Complete the chart with the prefixes in the box. Listen and check.

dis- im- in- un- il- ir- mis-

1 _____	2 _____	3 _____	4 _____	5 _____	6 _____	7 _____
polite	appearing	fortunate	accurate	leading	legal	responsible patient	organized	suitable	effective	pronounced	logical	relevant mature	honest	available	visible	spelled	legible	regular probable	satisfied	expected	formal

Complete the sentences with words from exercise 1A.

- 1 It's really _____ that Ron failed his final exam. Now he'll have to repeat the course.
- 2 I'm getting a little _____ with my son. He still hasn't cleaned up his room!
- 3 In English, a _____ word can sometimes be very hard to understand because there are so many words that sound alike.
- 4 The bus schedule was completely _____ and had the wrong times. I missed the last bus home!
- 5 I think it's just so _____ to borrow money from friends and not pay them back.
- 6 I'm really worried about all the _____ wildlife. We're going to have more endangered species soon.
- 7 Your call can't be that important. It's really _____ to talk on your cell phone at the dinner table.
- 8 Plastic bags are _____ for recycling and have to be thrown away, but I don't really understand why.
- 9 What are you going to wear to the party? I think it's pretty casual and _____.
- 10 In my city, littering is _____. If they catch you, you get a big fine!
- 11 Some of what we learn in school is just so _____ and will never help us get jobs!
- 12 My ten-year-old son is still too _____ to understand the value of money.
- 13 This is the coldest winter ever, so how can the planet be getting warmer? It's completely _____!
- 14 I can't find energy-efficient bulbs in any of the hardware stores. They're totally _____ at the moment.